INCE the finishing these LET-TERS, that I might fecure my Self from mistaking the Non-Sub-scribers in any Particular, I cast my Eye once more over what they have published in their Account of this important Affair; and Breibren at Exeter, Subscrib'd by the Reverend Mr. Oldfield, D.D. might have been sufficient to have prevented all I have said against ibem, since there the proper Divinity of our Saviour and the Blessed Trinity are own'd in Words that are meer-ly Humane; which Letter is Subscrib'd in all their Names, by Mr. Oldfield, D. D. their Maderator. But this partial Compliance, this Use of two or three Words, meerly Humane, to notify or make known what they mean, adds new Force and Strength to what I have Said in my Letter to them; for if they could depart from their Adherence, to the expressing themselves in no other Words but those of the Holy Scripture, in two or three Words they might have done it in the whole Declaration: But they did this, they Say, to Notify the Things we speak of; and we do not prefume, in the way

By Notify, I suppose, they mean, to let the Hearer or Reader know perfellly what is intended by the Words they make roem, in their use of: If that be the Sense of Notify, they must give me leave to tell them, that these Unscrip-tural Words of Trinity and Proper Divinity are not sufficient to notify that they do believe the Trinity in the Sense of the Declaration; for the word Trinity has various Senses, as that of the Modelists and Reallists, a meer nominal Sense and a Sense which it implies, or that is min the Declaration: And in the same mann per Divinity may be taken in the Sense Trinitarians, or in that of the Atjans or Soc for Socious himself allowed Christ to factus, that is, a Made or Created God Words of the Declaration leave us in no these Doubts, so the Necessity of Subscribing it ftill remains, the honest Conduct, by which you, Gentleme doidne have directed your felves, in Subscribing, in facts express Terms to the Doctrine of the Hoty Transmy, has, in some measure, alleviated both our Pain and Confusion: I wish it were able entirely to remove that odious Obloquy, which, the Refusal of so great a Number, has given the Common Foe an Opportunity of fixing upon us.

I hope, that notwithstanding the Evil Appearance, which the Refusal of those Gentlemen who have denied to join with you in the Subscription, and the Triumph of the Societans, Arians, and others, are without that Ground with which they state themselves, of having gain'd so strong a Party among the Diffenters; since the Non-Subscribers have own'd the Divinity of our Saviour, and the Holy Spirit.

I shall take the less Notice of their Measures in this Place, because I shall have Occasion to speak to them more particularly in the following Letter, where they come more directly under my Confideration; but this I must needs say in this place. that their Aversion to do the same which you have done, very much heigthens our Obligations to you. in having that Regard to the Satisfaction of those who are committed to your Charge, as not to let any needless Scruple or Nicety deprive us of the Satisfaction which is not only due to us, but to all the Churches of Christ: We therefore, the Laity. think our felves obliged to return our most hearty Thanks unto you, not only for the A& it left, but for the Manner in which it was done, and the Endeavours you have fince used, by Reason and Argument, and a true Brotherly Love, to prevail with them to quit that oblinate retention of what they had first done, and so satisfy the World, either in your Words or Words chosen by themselves, that they do believe the Trinity in the fame Sente which which all known Trinitarians do, and not to adhere to Words which may be own'd even by an Arian bimfelf, by help of a little Equivocation.

They have been pleased to call their's, A Noble Scand for Liberty; but, I am afraid, there is a manifest Abuse of the word Liberry in this place. and that it fignifies, in their Sense, a License to let all Sects and Herefies into the very Administration of the Church: For if they will neither confent to let their Congregations know what their Opinions are in fuch express Words, Words of a certain and determinate Sense, nor allow that any other shall draw up for them any Declaration to the fame Purpole, they may hold the most heterodox Opinions in the World, though never to de-Structive of Christianity it self, and the Congregations are in no way of getting rid of a Wolf in Sheep's cloathing; We must therefore Thank you who have discovered such a Readiness, such a Willingness, fuch an Alacrity in complying with the Defire, and removing the Doubts and Scruples of our distant Brethren of Exon, which discovers a truly Christian Concern for the Souls of those who are not directly under your Charge. You were not for neglecting the Surmifes and Reports of the Enemies of the Christian Name, which had fixed fuch a Scandal upon the Differting Teachers of London, as if they were almost all in the Arian Interest. The only Means of putting a Stop to this Reproach, was the Method you have taken, that is, by publickly Subscribing to such a Declaration as should fufficiently and eminently prove to the World, that you did really believe the Bleffed Trinity in the same Sense of the Scripture which has been always given it by all the Protestant Congregations in the World: And it is amazing to me, that there should be so many found in your Reveverend ground of such Suspicion, that their Professions and Words are not sincere enough to be depended upon; and by consequence, that the Satisfaction of so many of the Law, who depend on, and expect their Publick Assurance of being for the Holy Trimity, is not of Importance enough to energy their Consent.

But, Gentlemen, the greater Difficulty they make of doing this, the greater the Necessity is that it should be done; because it has made known, and spread those Doubts and Reproaches, which can only be removed by such a Declaration: And the more are our Obligations to you, who would have prevented all this Scandal, and have so much lesien'd it by what you have done.

This Obligation cannot be fufficiently paid, without our communicating, as often as we can, your Names to the World, which is the Reason that they are printed again at the End of this Lister. My Wishes and Prayers shall always be continued, that your plous Endeavours, and Zeal for the Christian Religion, may meet with suitable Success, especially that they may quickly bring over your mistaken Brethren to do what you have done. # A LETTER of PERSWASION, to the Non-subscribing Ministers.

Reverend GENTLEMEN, MIN ONE

yet think your due, notwithstanding your strange Conduct lately at Salters-Hall, by which you have plainly shewn, that altho the Peace of our Souls is committed unto you in so solemn a Manner, you discover so little Regard to that Peace, as to refuse to confirm it by a sositive Declaration that you are Christians, that is, that you do really Believe in the Blessed Trinity; tho no more was required by this, than what you were were obliged to do at your first Admission into the Ministry: This therefore it is that has given us, the honest Plain-meaning Laity, so terrible an Alarm, and has rouzed me in particular to inform you what is expected from you, in order to remove that Disquet and Scandal which your Conduel has produced. Nor would I have you reof what I shall offer because it comes from a when the Clergy fer fo light by their Congregations, it is but reasonable that some of those Consogations frould pur them in Mind of that Duty which they feem to have forgotten, and perempportly Demand Satisfaction in this Pagricular

But because forme of your Champions have in Print infinuated, that this Declaration was without any just or important Ground; give me leave to recepitulate and give the Matter of Fact, as I find it in the Accounts published on both Sides; from whence not only the Importance, but the Necessity of some Declaration on this Head will manifeffly appear to every Man that shall think of it without Prejudice or Prepossession.

Two or three Ministers of Exerce had advanced fuch Notions against the Doctrine of the Trinity. as made their Congregations depart from them, and refute to be any farther joined with Man of fuch Principles. But that they might not do any thing rainly and on their own Heads, they directed Letters to their Brethren in London, for their Advice in this Particular; but with this express Caution, That this Advice be sent by such Ministers as shall sufficiently convince them that they are for the Doctrine of the Tinity of fince their Ministers at Exon, and their Partizens, had infinuated, meet were of their Opinion. Accordingly leading of all the Divines of the Den rightions in and the Divines of the three Dentifications in and about London were Surprione to Mase together at Salter Lial but Where their fact, the Subferbing Ministers propose as a free suffer Pletiminary to those Advices which the were afterwards to give those distracted Church of the West, That every Member should Su Reibe a Declaration That they did firmly Be lieve the Doctrine of the Bleffed Trinny in the very lame Senfe in which call the Reformed Chirches in the World valid Believe in J. To this Poll the Subforthing Divines did hoo ma enote of any new Words of their own that of thole which are found in the birth driver of the Church of Bagland and the Anthory to Whis Que aid, because they could into imagine that their could be one Minister among them which should make a Scruple of the very Woods which they elieur Admillion to the Ministerial Functional and Whis is the true State of the Cafe: And as the Necessity of this Subscription plainly appears in this, that, without It is would be to uno mainer of Purpole to proceed to draw up any Advices finde those, who were to receive those Advices had declared, they would receive none, but from fuch as mould give fufficient Testimony of the not "being anteced A with Arianifing for many Anti-Trimerian Mectons il And the only way me do this, the Subscribing Divines justly dupposed was to make the of Words that were Plain and Pefitive, and incupate of Evalions at the of the Non-Industrial Ministers, on the contrary, the they feem'd landy'do that a Declaration of

Meir Faith in the Trinity, was a necessary ninary to the Advices they were to give, to agree that this Declaration should be made Words but those of the Holy Scriptures. Gen-emen, you must paidon me, that I arrest your Confion of the Necessity of such a Declaration, for fit be necellary, as you feem to grant by your Proceedings, it is equally necessary that it should he in fuch Words as should be fatisfactory to the Persons for whom you defign'd it, otherwise it must be to them as no Declaration at all of it is very well known, that the Arians, Socinians, and Unitarium, as they call themselves, in Oppofition to Trinitarians; do allow all those Texts of Scriptures, which we, who are for the Dostrine of the Trinity, do quote to prove it. It is therefore not the Words of the Text that can make the Di-Stinction between us, but the Sense and Meaning that each Side does put upon those Words, that can be fufficient Evidence to prove that any Man is for or against the Trinity, in the received common Sense of that Word. Which is sufficient to shew, that the Non-Subscribers, tho' they allowed the Necessity of the Declaration, was resolved, however, not to comply with that Necessity. vill poly

Thus much for the Necessity of the Declarations I shall next fay a few Words as to its Importance; Though, indeed, having provid the Necessity of it, it would feem too superfluous, were we to deal with Men of an unbials'd Reason and a Christian Compation but fince our Advertaries feem more eminent for their Obstinacy than Reason, I shall add a Confideration or two upon this likewife. don Ministers had been mit-represented to our Country Brethren as Arians : And fure, Gentlemen, you will think, that to clear your felyes from this Im-of with two or three Congregations reant enough to engage your utmost Care and the But, and the same loss of 1840 duch secondly, When this Notion of your Guilt, this Particular, was not confin'd to two or th Congregations, but industriously, by the Malice and Policy of your Enumies, spread not only all over this Town, but almost all over the Nation, it was certainly of the highest Importance, that you should take care to give the World the highest Evidence that you were not guilty of this Imputa-tion; if, at least, you think, that the Vindication of fo illustrious a Body, as that of the Protestant Dif fenting Ministers, from fo foul an Acculation be of any Importance; which can only be done by fuch a Declaration as has been fign'd by the worthy Ministers whom ye have been pleased to nion of their veneral twallownic and alongo

Gentlemen vou must excuse me if I should feem to urge this Matter a little too close upon you, fince Christianity it felf is so much concern'd in it : I must therefore tell you that we of the Laity are under some Apprehension, that under the specious Pretence of an Honour paid to the Braze you feem to conceal your real Sentiments, and give us but too much Suspicion that the best of our Enemies were but too well grounded, fince fo many Ministers among us have but too manifestly in this Affair acted for their Caufe. Gendemen if you are really in your Hearts for the Arian Do-Etrine, if you are to unhappy as to be fallen in to that deteffable Herefy; be fo Honett, at least, as plainly to own it, that we may know our Friends from our Foes; defend your Cause openly and fairly, avow your Principles in their own Colours; for then we may pity your Misfortune, and convince by our Arguments, and endeavour to convert by Prayers to many unhappy Perfors from to in Error > But whilst you conceal your Princip and daub over so notorious a Defection by learning but our Detellation of your Hypacrify. It would, be confess, be a very melancholy Prospect, to be hold to many Learned Mon falling from the Faith; han to frecto many Enemies of our most bloly Faith Careft in our Bosons, and Teaching in our Bulgits, as well as Propagating privately among us a Doctrine destructive of our Common Christis anity of Ocal What a miscroble Condition are your poor Congregations in when they must always either be upon their Guard, perpetually ensertaining a Sufpicion of their Teachers, or elfe, by a too easy Credulity, and too frong an Opinion of their Veracity, swallow down that fatal Poplon, against which by their Duty, they ought so furnish them with an Antidoted and or me

There are three Realons remaining, which furnish strong Suspicion of the Infincerity of your Intention, and which are never to be found in a good Caufe, wor made wie of by any Defenders of Such Caufe The first is, your Fallification of Metter of Fact, which has been publickly prov'd apon you. The next is your Contrivance of gaining a Majority, by the Affiftance of fuch who had no Right to be fo much as present at your Debates, which has likewife been provid upon you. The third Reason is, the personal Resections, the odious Sarcafins, conjuned up to blacken the Character of your active Opponent: This is very evident in one of your most Eloquent Desenders, where he digreffes into a very clumfie Abufe of the Reverend Mr. Ebonias Budbury, which is of no manner of We to the Validity of your Appument, and ferves ( 18 )

poly to vent your Malice, for what fignifies is whether Mr. Bradbury he a pleasant Companion a fow i, morpie, ill humpura Region; No A in the World, shat ever I knew, excluded an innocent Migth from true Religion; and even your Adve rate does not to much as presend, that this Reverend Gentleman's Good humour is ever criminal. He does, indeed, not only not like a Christian, but not to much as like a Gentleman or an honest Man, give villanous Innuendo's, as if Mr. Bradhury was too fond of the Bottle, but that is too plain a piece of Malice to need any Confutation. Your Cause must be very bad indeed, when it forces you to have recourse to so abandon'd a thing as scandal for its Support, and fit only for the wretched Scriblers of Lampoons. If in Answer to the there has been any thing offer'd not to severely ferious as this Dispute requires, you must remember that you were the Aggressors; you began to throw Dirt, and cannot wonder at any Man's Endeavour to fecure himfelf from the Filth.

These are the three Reasons that confirms me in my Suspicion of the Infincerity of both what you have faid and done, and heigthers my Fears, that notwithstanding all your Pretences, you are Against, and not For us, that you are Arians, or the like, and not Trinitarians, though you have not had the Courage and Hopesty to fay to in express Words. If I injure you in this Opinion, I have a great many Partners in the Guilt; but we do promise publickly to ask your Pardons when you shall give sufficient Proof, by your Subscribing the Declaration, that we have done you any injustice: But there is no other Way possible either to do your felves Right, or remove that Scandal which you have given the World. I would have you remember that this is not imposing a Creed upon apon you, but only a Defire that you would let us know plainly, and without any Equivocation, what your Belief is in this Particular, and in what Sense you take the Words of the Holy Scriptures, from whence we deduce the Doctrine of the Hote Trinity, according to the First Article of the Church of England, and the Answers in the Assemblies Catechism. If you refuse this, you do plainly tell us, that you will not, for the Satisfaction of all the World, let us know your real Sentiments on this Roint; which is sufficient to justify all that can be laid to your Charge. Let me recommend to you one Text of Scripture, It is necessary that Scandal should be: but wo to them by whom it shall come, Mat. xviii. 7. As therefore you would avoid this Wo pronounced by our Bleffed Saviour, in time remove that Scandal which you have already given, by Subscribing the Declaration: Which is the hearty Wish and Prayer of,

Camon Consider without a Word or two to your Self, whose Conduct has been very surprisingly particular in this grand. Debate which has to unhappity Divided the Reverence Body of our Ministers. You feel to aim at a Thing which never can be obtained. the Reconciling of Opposites, and of the Two Different Parties center in Mr. John Conder, for your Name we find in Both the Printed Lifts; and either Side claim you as their own because you have fee your Name to the Opinion of each Side Perhaps you imagine by that that you shall at teach be in the Right by One of them, This Way of making Suce, was practifed by a contain Physician within there wenty Years, who, to make white Work, as the imagined on his Death bed had the Prayers of the Church of England read lowing by a Protestine Minister, and the Extreme Unction of the Papists administred to him by a Popish Priest. In the same manner there was one of the Saxon Kings of our Heptarchy, who, upon hearing the Gospel of Christ preached, set up an Altar to Christ by the Altar of his former God. So these two Instances seem to bear some Parallel to what you have done. But the they might feem to make fure of the Truth on one Side; it is plain, that Doubt was the Motive of their Actions, that they were not Fix'd in either Opinion; but Wavering between both. The fame, I am afraid will hold good in your Self: For if you had been fully fatifity'd that the Subscribing Ministers were in the Right, and for that reason Subscribed with them to the Declaration, it is impossible that you could ever have thought of joining your Name to those who were of a contrary Opinion; for that will be reconciling Truth and Error, as giving the same Testimony to both.

Not to multiply Words, or put a worfe Face on the Matter, than is confishent with that good Character which you have in the World; I am willing to believe, that what you have done, has only been a Work of Supererogation in Christian Charity, and an inconsidering Desire to Unite the Brethren, whose Distanton anight, perhaps, give you so much Uneasiness. But, Reverend Sir, this Conduct of your's could not afford you, in Reason, any such valuable Prospect. For while you discover'd such an Inconsistency in your Opinion, you could not hope to have any great Instuence upon either Side. Halting between two Opinions, is what should never fall in with the Character of a Teacher: For how can be direct a Congregation, who wanders himself in the Wiles of Uncertainty? What Dependance can a Congregation have upon a Breacher who does not to much as know his own Mind? In short, we of the Laity expect stat our Teachers should be of more fix'd and certain crinesples: And since you have, by your Conduct, given us Offence, we hope you will have so much Regard to your
